Mr. F. W. Greene, the Gulf States Passenger Agent of the Wabash railroad, spent a few hours in Columbus Friday in the interest of his line for the cheap excursion. Frank, as he is familiarly called by all the boys, is the best all-round hustler for business to be found anywhere. If he had remained with the M. & O. a few years ago, when he had the St. Louis end of the Emigration department, East Mississippi would have had ten thousand more good, substantial farmers than she has now, and lands all along the line would have been trebled in value. The Wabash is well represented in him.

Mother Always Keeps It Handy.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health, due primarily to indigestion," says L.
W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now, at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarkable that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms.
Go after the cause. If your stomach is sounding your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic.—E. C. Chapman.

Dr. W. W. Westmoreland is in receipt of a letter from a prominent planter of Pleasant Ridge, Alabama, in which the startling statement is made that it will take ten acres of average land to make one bale of cotton and that on the best land not more than a bale can be gotten from three or four acres. This condition exists in Greene, Hale and Sumpter counties, which is due to a long drouth. The same writer says there are no peas, no sorghum and no gardens.

OFF FOR THE ENCAMPMENT.

Columbus occupies quite a prominent position in the military circles of the state, as Gen. J. S.
Billups, the distinguished commander of the State National Guard, resides here, and several prominent members of his staff are citizens of this city. This fact serves to make the annual encampment of the state troops, which will be held at Biloxi next week, an affair of absorbing local interest. The Columbus contin-gent will be large this year, as usual, as Gen. Billups and the local members of his staff, the local officers of the First Regiment, the Columbus Riflemen, and Lieut. Ephraim G. Peyton, of the U. S. army, who, at the request of Gen. Billups, has been appointed inspecting officer of the camp, will all be in attendance.

Gen. Billups and his party, which includes his daughter, Miss Ida, Misses Lavinia Robertson and Lilla Franklin, Maj.
H. M. Waddell and wife, Col. W.
A. Love, Lt. Col. Jack Morgan
and Lieut. Ephraim G. Peyton, left over the Southern railway for Biloxi at four o'clock yesterday morning, having been preceded on Thursday by Capt. Geo. Y.
Banks, who was appointed to go to Biloxi and supervise the laying out of the camp. Lt. Col. T. H.
Sharp and Maj. Jno. P. Mayo, together with the Columbus Riflemen, accompanied by their sponsor and maid of honor, leave tomorrow morning. Maj.
W. L. Gardner, of Gov. Longino's staff, and Capt. J. F. Pope, of Gen. Billups' staff, are undecided yet as to when they can get off, but will certainly go down some time during the week.

A splendid program has been arranged for the week. Thursday, August 21st, has been officially designated as Governor's day, and the camp, which has been named Camp Longino, in honor of the distinguished chief executive of the state, will be reviewed by the governor and his staff. The great sham battle will take place on Wednesday, August 27th, and on the following day the soldiers will break camp and return to their respective homes.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

Little Allen, the bright young son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mathis, met with quite a painful accident while riding his bicycle on west Main street last Thursday morning. Just as he reached the approach to the county bridge his wheel careened and he was thrown against the railing which protects the side of the embankment, his body coming in contact with some projecting nails, which lacerated the skin, causing a painful, though not dangerous, wound. He was taken home in a buggy and has about recovered from his injuries.

MR. KINCANNON

AT HOME.

Hon. A. A. Kincannon, President of the Industrial Institute and College, who was badly injured in a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad in Philadelphia nearly two weeks ago, returned home Friday. He is greatly improved, but when seen by a representative of The Commercial was carrying his right arm in a sling and, though cheerful, gave evidence of intense suffering.

Mr. Kincannon's description of the wreck in which he was injured was enough to cause the hair of one's head to stand erect and it is a thousand wonders that his life was not crushed out of him. His little daughter, Franklin, was on the train with him, but she, happily, escaped with slight injuries.

Mrs. Kincannon and the children are still in Baltimore and will remain until about the first of September.

MR. SHERROD'S OFFER WITHDRAWN.

The government has been so tardy in its action regarding the proposed change in the location, of the postoffice that Mr. C. F.
Sherrod, one of the gentlemen offering a building for its permanent use has withdrawn his offer. The building which Mr.
Sherrod offered was one which his sister, Mrs. Sarah Sheffield having erected at the corner of Market and College streets, and it has been generally believed that he had some assurance from the government that the postoffice would be located there, but it turns out that no such assurance has been given him, for he telegraphed the First Assistant Postmaster-General Thursday afternoon asking him to consider his offer withdrawn, provided that the same had not already been accepted. He has received no reply to his telegram, and it is supposed that the Washington officials consider the deal off.

When seen by a Commercial reporter Mr. Sherrod stated that the building would be completed regardless of any action the department might take regarding the postoffice. He states that there are numerous parties who desire to lease it for mercantile purposes and anticipates no trouble in securing a tenant.

MR. JACOB GETS THE CONTRACT.

The executive committee of the Industrial Institute and College has awarded the contract for installing the steam heating apparatus in the new industrial hall, which is now in course of construction, to Mr. F. M. Jacob, of this city, who is to receive $5500 for the work. Mr. Jacob was awarded the contract over bidders from Greenville, Miss., Louisville, Ky., and several other cities.

TOOK TWO OUT OF THREE.

Columbus took two out of the three games which were played with the Hazlehurst baseball club at the fair grounds Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons, winning Friday's game by a score of 13 to 5, and the game on yesterday by a score of 9 to 0. Hazle-hurst won the first game by a score of 7 to 3.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in his wise providence to take out of this world the spirit of our brother, Major John Marshall Billups, and WHEREAS, It is meet that we give expression to our appreciation of his long and faithful service to the church, and of his character as a man and as a Christian; therefore

Resolved, That the quarterly conference of Columbus station of the North Mississippi conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, enter upon its record this testimony of its love and veneration of the name and character of our deceased brother who for forty-four years has been an honored member of this church, and for thirty-two years one of its stewards.

Resolved, That we mourn his death, not as those who have no hope, but as loved ones who shall miss his reverence. For thirty years or more he was the faithful and efficient president of the board of stewards. His wise counsel, his devotion to duty, his loyalty to his church, and his love for his Master leave an example to us to stimulate our endeavors.
He was a kind husband, a loving father, a steadfast friend and a sincere Christian. His last public act was to go to church, his last prayer was for a glorious dawn, and his last word was Jesus, May his life of unselfish deeds bring a blessing to our hearts.

Resolved, That a copy of this paper be furnished the family as a testimonial of our regard for the many virtues of our brother, and that it be preserved as a part of our record.

T. W. LEWIS,
T. J. LOCKE,
J. M. BARROW,
Committee.

Adopted by Quarterly Conference, Columbus station, August 11th, 1902.

NECROLOGICAL.

MRS. MARY M. BETTS.

Mrs. Mary M. Betts, the beloved mother of Maj. R. C. Betts, died at the home of her son in south Columbus, Thursday afternoon. It was the custom of the deceased to take a nap every afternoon in a large arm chair, which seemed to suit her taste better than a bed or couch, and on Thursday afternoon she went to sleep immediately after dinner, as usual. Although Mrs. Betts was by no means strong, she had not complained of feeling ill during the day, and it was quite a severe shock to the family when she was found dead about five o'clock. Her death was the result of heart failure. Mrs. Betts was born at Charleston, S. C., on Sept. 29, 1829, being a scion of an old and aristocratic family, and during her residence here had lived a quiet and secluded life, her physical infirmities having prevented her from participating in the pleasures and pastimes which are indulged in by those who enjoy more robust health. She was, however, a noble Christian woman, and was greatly beloved in the home circle and by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

The funeral occurred at St.
Paul's Episcopal church at 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, the services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Robert M. Barnwell.
The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Col. W. C.
Richards, Col. Wm. Rhett, Col.
W. D. Humphries, Mr. E. R. Hopkins, Mr. J. I. Sturdivant, Mr. H.
Osborne.

OBITUARY.

Last Thursday afternoon the gentle spirit of dear "Aunt Mary" (Mrs. Betts) took its flight to the realm of eternal light and bliss, where her sainted soul shall rest "under the shadow of His wing" that home everlasting promised His faithful followers. She was unobtrusive, unselfish and uncomplaining; even in her sudden death she seemed unwilling to give other trouble. Mrs. Betts, formerly Miss Mary Moffet, was a native of Charleston, S. C. She came of an old Huguenot family and was endowed by nature with a wonderful mind and memory.
Her intellectual graces had been cultivated by early education and refined social contact, while her omnivorous reading made her unusually familiar with history and literature. With her son, grandchildren and neighbors we shall miss the benison of her quiet life among us and feel the common regret that we did not more to brighten the days of her declining years. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." S.

MR. JOHN A. MULLEN.

Mr. John A. Mullen, who for many months past has been in bad health, died at the residence of his brother, Mr. E. H. Mullen, on College street, about 4 o'clock last Thursday afternoon. Deceased was a man of many good qualities. He had a genial, sunny disposition, and until disease overtook him, was always in a good humor, and was recognized among his friends and companions as a jolly good fellow, who could always be depended upon to entertain any crowd into which he might be thrown.

Mr. Mullen was born in this city thirty four years ago, but at an early age removed with his family to Baltimore, where he remained until 1886, when he returned to this city and has since made it his home. In October, 1894, he was married to Miss Mary O'Malley, and she, together with four children, survives him.

The funeral took place at the family residence on College street at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning, being conducted by Rev. A. J. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist church. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Messrs. W. P. Mahon, B.
A. Weaver, Chas. Jacob, John Childers, S. L. Caine, P. W.
Maer.

MISS LIZZIE BLAIR.

Miss Lizzie Blair, who has been an invalid for many years past, and whose condition during the last few days has been most precarious, died at the home of Mrs.
E. K. Lide on Second avenue, south, about five o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Deceased was a native of Virginia, having been born in that state eighty-five years ago. She has, however, made Columbus her home for many years past, and, notwithstanding the fact that ill health kept her confined to her

Long Distance Telephone.

We have fitted up in our office, in the Odd Fellows' building, a sound-proof Telephone Booth for the use of our Long Distance patrons. This is an advantage in using the Long Distance Lines, as it is more private and the service is improved by the speaker being in a sound-proof cabinet, which excludes all outside sound.

Come up and see our Exchange and use this Booth for your Long Distance business.
